Mysore

Secty. H-27—s8,CC1—4-1-52.

FINANCE (195) Department.

MS SERIES.

G.O. NO. 43

43

23. 1. 1952

Dated 23rd January 1952

FOR MYSORE STATE

[Despatch Abstract.]

Travelling Allowance – Parliamentary Secretaries to Honourable Ministers – Orders issued.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

FINANCE DEPARTMENT.

G.O.No. 43, JANUARY 1952.

Travelling Allowance - Parliamentary Secretaries to Honourable Ministers - Orders issued.

ORDER — No.43, Finance, dated 23rd January 1952.

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 8 of the Madras Payment of Salaries and Removal of Disqualifications Act 1951(Madras Act XX of 1951), His Excellency the Governor of Madras hereby makes the following rules:-

RULES

1. Travelling Allowances shall be admissible to a Parliamentary Secretary at the rates and upon the conditions specified in the following rules in respect of —

(a) his journey for assuming office, to the City of Madras from his usual place of residenence in the State, if such place is outside the city and

(b) his journey on relinquishing office, from the City to his usual place of residence in the State before he assumed office if such place is outside the city.

2. (1) A Parliamentary secretary may draw two first-class fares for journeys by rail and 1½ first-class fares for journeys by steamer.

(2) If the Parliamentary Secretary may draw two first-class he may draw one fare of the class by which he actually travels PLUS the extra full first-class fare or the extra ½ first-class fare, as the case may be.

3(1) A Parliamentary Secretary may also draw the fare for each member of his family who accompanies him, provided it is actually paid.

EXPLANATIONS.

A member of the Parliamentary Secretary's family who follows him within three months or precedes him by not more than one month shall be deemed to accompany him.

(2) " Family" in sub-rule (1) includes the wife and the sons and daughters (including an adopted sonn and step-sons and step daughters) of the Parliamentary Secretary residing with and wholly dependent on him, but does not include a married daughter after she has been placed under her husband's protection.

Explanation:- An adopted son shall be deemed to be a son for the purposes of this rule, when the Accountant-General, Madras if any doubt arises in his mind, the Advocate-General, Madras is satisfied that, under the personal law governing the Parliamentary Secretary, adoption, is legally recognised as conferring the status of a natural son and in that case only.

4(1) A Parliamentary Secretary may also draw the actual cost of transporting at owner's risk by goods train, steamer or other craft, personal effects up to amximum of 120 maunds:

Provided that five maunds may be carried by passeng train.

(2) If the whole of the personal effects are carried train or if more than five maunds thereof are carried b train and the rest by goods trains, the Parliamentary S may draw the actual cost of their carriage up to the am which would have been admissible, if he had taken five by passenger train and 115 maunds by goods train.

5. The Parliamentary Secretary may also draw either

(1) the actual charges, at the one end, for packin porting, to the station from which the train, steamer or leaves and loading, and actual charges at the other end unloading transporting from the destination and unpacki

(2) a consolidated allowance for each maund loaded rate of four annas per mile for the distance covered by whichever is less, subject to a maximum of Rs.50 at eac

6. A Parliamentary Secretary may draw the actual cos transporting at Government risk, by goods train, steamer o craft, one motor car belonging to him and a fare for on chauffeur or cleaner by the lowest class, provided that distance travelled exceeds 80 miles:

Provided further that if the motor car is transpor other manner, the Parliamentary Secretary may draw the would have been incurred if it had been transported by steamer, or other craft as the case may be.

7. A Parliamentary Secretary, may in addition, draw or steamer fares by the lowest class for not more than servants on a certificate that the fares have actually paid.

8. A Parliamentary Secretary who travels by a Gover steamer is entitled, in lieu of the foregoing concessio transport of himself, his family, servants and their BO personal effects as well as his car, and may in additio daily allowance of Rs.10-8-0.

9. For journeys by road or canal, a Parliamentary S may draw mileages at the following rates:-

(a) If travelling alone or accompanied by less than three members of his family. Two mileages each per mil

(b) If accompanied by three members of his family. Three mileage

(c) If accompanied by more than three members of his family. Four mileages at 12 per mile.

NOTE: If a journey is performed by road or canal be places connected by railway the charge should be limite would have been admissible had the Parliamentary Secret travelled by rail.

10 (1). If between places connected by railway, the p effects of the Parliamentary Secretary are carried by r he may draw the actual expenses up to the amount which been admissible if he had taken five maunds by passenge 115 maunds by goods train.

(2) If between places not connected by railway, such personal effects are carried by road or canal, the Parliamentary Secretary shall in addition to the milegages specified in rule 9 be entitled to two extra mileages of 12 annas each per mile. Subject to the production of a certificate that there was no public career available to carry such effects at a chaper rate.

(3) In the cases referred to in sub-rules (1) and (2) if a public-carrier is available for the transport of the personal effects the claim shall be limited to the amount which would have been charged by such carrier for the transport of such effects (subject to the maximum of 120 maunds) at xxx xxx owner's risk if such amount is smaller than the amount admissible under sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) as the case may be.

11. (1) When extra railway fares or mileages are claimed under rule 2 or rule 9 on behlaf of members of his family the Parliamentary Secretary shall certify to the number of such members who accompanied him and to their relationship to him.

(2) Claims under rules 4 and 10 shall be admitted only on the production of vouchers supported by the Parliamentary Secretary, certificate that only goods belonging to his and his family were carried.

(By order of Hhs Excellency the Governor)

T.E. Veeraraghavachari, Deputy Secretary to Government.

To
The Accountant-General, Madras.
The Public (Elections) Department.
The Finance (CCB) Department.
The Chief Secretariat.

/True Copy/ Ratnamma

GR/19-11. Superintendent.

Compared by:
N. Devaki.